Dear Parents,

This is to inform you that “NELTAS (National English Testing and Assessment System) is organizing an analytical test based on the application of formal and functional grammar.

NELTAS helps the students to communicate effectively, express their ideas with clarity, strengthen their writing, speaking and comprehension skills. We would like to motivate the students to excel and achieve something more than what they think they can and prepare them for further International Competitive Exams.

Based on the previous heartening performance of our school children, we would like to encourage students to take part in this competitive exam. We look forward for maximum participation.
